HEARING POSTPONED.

Undertaker, Summoned to Explain Faked Papers, Gets Delay Until Monday.

Undertaker George H. Kelly, No. 337 Columbus Avenue, who buried Mrs. Anna Calliers, the aged taxicab victim of No. 208 West 83d Street, before her daughter knew of her death, to-day notified Dr. William H. Guilfoyle, Register of Records of the Department of Health, that he had engaged counsel and asked that the hearing called by Dr. Guilfoyle be postponed until Monday.

Dr. Guilfoyle, who is endeavoring to fix responsibility for false entries on the official records of the case, consented to the delay. He then examined Miss Charlotte Calliers, the woman's daughter, who is a grand opera singer and vocal teacher, now living at the Hotel Bristol.

Miss Calliers repeated the story she told to the Chief Medical Examiner about the hurried and secret burial of her mother. The only new feature developed was that the undertaker had secured from her, after her mother's burial, a correct pedigree of the deceased. On the death certificate which it was necessary for Kelly to file before the body could be buried, false entries were made. The woman's age was incorrectly stated and the names of both her parents were faked.

Miss Calliers said she was in Roosevelt Hospital at 11 o'clock one night after her mother had been buried, when Undertaker Kelly called her on the telephone and asked her to come immediately to his establishment. She said when she went there she asked Kelly to see the death certificate.

"Mr. Kelly said it had not been made out yet, as it could not be made out until he had obtained certain information from me," she said. "He then asked me all about my mother, where she was born, and when and what the names of her parents were. I told him, but I did not see the death certificate then."

WOMAN SHOTS AT ROBBER SHE FINDS RIFLING HOME

Burglar Escapes in Fog After Crawling Out Window of Rutherford, N. J., Residence.

When Mrs. Arthur S. Lyon, No. 205 Ridge Road, Rutherford, N. J., was preparing dinner last night, she heard a noise upstairs. Accompanied by her maid, she investigated. Entering the front bedroom they saw a man crawl out of a window and down a ladder.

Mrs. Lyon seized a revolver and fired two shots at the burglar as he ran up the street. He escaped in the dense fog. Mrs. Lyon is the wife of the head of the Lyon Mercantile Agency, No. 258 Broadway.

Recent burglaries in Rutherford have alarmed residents. Wednesday night $1,000 worth of jewelry and furs were stolen from the home of Henry Prentiss, No. 244 Montross Avenue. The same night a burglar stole almost as much from the home of O. T. Keen, next door to the Prentiss home. The following night, a burglar entered the home of J. W. Hickox, No. 178 Holmes Avenue, and stole a wallet containing $25.

"I am sorry only for one thing and that is that I failed to hit him. I probably would have put an end to this fellow's operations in Rutherford," Mrs. Lyon said to-day.

FOURTEEN DEATHS IN WEEK LAID TO N. Y. BOOTLEGGING

Washington to Direct Determined
Fight Against Violators—
Traffic Is Widespread.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—"Bootleggers" are coming in for the particular attention of the Bureau of Internal Revenue as a result of the reported widespread traffic in liquors containing denatured and wood alcohol.

Revenue officials in New York alone have reported 14 deaths recently in that city in one week from drinking "blue leg" concoctions. Some of the liquor was said to have sold for as much as $20 a quart.

Officials have been alerted to use their utmost efforts in the apprehension and prosecution of this class of law violators, against whom extreme penalties will be sought.

GOING DOWN! DEATH RATE.

Health Conditions Improving, Says
Surgeon General Rice.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—Health conditions throughout the United States have greatly improved during the last year, Surgeon-General Hargett Rice, head of the Public Health Service, said to-day. This improvement, he said, is due in part to lessons of hygiene learned in the war. Only a small number of Spanish influenza cases are being reported.

Latest reports from all sections of the country, the Surgeon-General added, show the death rate to be below the average.

NEW COLD WAVE IN WEST.

Many States With Little Cold Suffer from Zero Weather.

CHICAGO, Dec. 12.—Continuation of the severe weather of the last few days in the Pacific Northwest and a return of sub-zero temperatures in the Plains States, and central and southwest with a spread eastward to-day, added to the discomfort resulting from depleted coal stores and fuel restrictions.

In Washington and Oregon record cold weather prevailed and below zero temperatures were reported from Idaho, Utah, Nebraska, Montana, Wyoming, the Dakotas, Colorado, Iowa and Minnesota. A strong north wind swept into the southwest, bringing a cold wave that was expected to send thermometer to 10 degrees below zero to-day.

ROULETTE RUMOR CAUSE OF RAID ON ANDRADE'S HOME

"No Practical Joke," Says Inspector, "We Confiscated Gambling Devices."

ACTED ON 'PHONE TIP.

Met Special Deputy Commissioner Ryan's Nephew Just Leaving Apartment.

Police Inspector Thomas Underhill today gave out a new version of his personally conducted raid Saturday night on the apartment of Cipriano Andrade, III, No. 31 West 47th street, and the Underhill version has nothing in it about "weddings" and "practical jokes."

"It was a gambling raid," said the inspector.

He added that he had confiscated a perfectly good roulette wheel and a number of chips as substantial evidence.

"For some time," said Underhill, "there have been reports of gambling in high society." There have been persistent rumors about a roulette wheel, but it was not until Saturday afternoon that I got my definite information. Then somebody called me by telephone, refused his name, but convinced me he knew what he was talking about, and told me there was a wheel going every night in the Andrade apartment."

It should be explained at this point that Andrade is a grandson of the late Admiral Andrade, U. S. N. Inspector Underhill made his plans carefully.

"I took none of my men that night Saturday," he said, "and we surrounded the building. The Andrade apartment is on the third floor. Its windows were ablaze with lights."

"We saw visitors come and go, sometimes singly, sometimes in pairs. Some of them stayed half an hour or so, others longer. About midnight, we decided it was time for the raid, and we started up the stairs."

"A young man tried to rush past us. He proved to be Thomas F. Ryan Jr., nephew of Special Deputy Police Commissioner Allan Ryan. I showed him my shield and asked him where he was going. He replied that it was none of my damned business."

"We took him along with us to the door of the Andrade apartment and rang. A voice from inside called, 'Who's there?' Young Ryan yelled back, 'Don't open—they're cops.'"

"I told the man on the other side of the door that we were true we were police and that we wanted to get in. The door was not opened. After perhaps fifteen minutes we broke in and found Andrade in pajamas. In the drawing room was a roulette wheel and a number of chips scattered about."

"Who gave you the tip—was it young Vanderbilt?" asked Andrade.

"I told him I did not know—that it was none of my business."

REPORTS ABOUT FIUME.

British Sympathy for Italy Reported Expressed in Presence of American Ambassador.

PARIS, Dec. 12.—As a result of the conferences being held at London by Premiers Lloyd George and Clemenceau, the American Government will be notified that, in order to facilitate a compromise between adverse parties in the American Senate, the Allies are willing to accept, as great an extent as possible, some of the reservations to the Versailles Treaty, made by the Foreign Relations Committee, according to the Matin.

It is said the Allies will "do everything in order that America may participate in future conferences."

In the presence of John W. Davis, United States Ambassador to Great Britain, it is said Premier Clemenceau and Lloyd George assured Vittorio Scialoja, Italian Foreign Minister, that there was a necessity for an early settlement of the Fiume problem, and indicated England would accede with the United States for Italy. Signor Scialoja will leave for Rome to-day to lay the matter before his Government.

The spirit which prevails at the London Conference, the Matin says, is good and the necessity for close cooperation by the Allies is emphasized.

Announcements relative to the engagements concluded by the Premiers in London will be made about Dec. 15, according to the Echo de Paris.

PREMIERS CONSIDER SENATE RESERVATIONS AT LONDON CONFERENCE

Calling in of Ambassador Davis Believed to Indicate a Desire to Make Concessions.

LONDON, Dec. 12.—The outstanding result of the conference of the Premiers is that Great Britain, France and Italy are showing an inclination to accept "reasonable" reservations to the peace treaty by the American Senate.

Premier Lloyd George, Premier Clemenceau and Foreign Minister Scialoja, meeting in Downing Street, while great crowds of the curious gathered outside, are believed to have touched on this point and discussed how far concessions could be made to the United States to insure her cooperation, without complicating the already tangled international situation. American Ambassador Davis and a Belgian representative were called into the conference.

Washington, Believes Feasible to Largest Obstacle.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—It has not been made known here to what extent the British powers might be prepared to go in accepting reservations to the French treaty, but it does appear that there would be objection to the possible as proposed by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee by which other powers would be required to officially record their acceptance of reservations as part of the treaty in substance.

MOTHER CHOKED, BOY KIDNAPPED BY MEN IN UNIFORM

Five-Year-Old Son of Philadelphian Stolen in Fashionable Suburb of Atlantic City.

ATLANTIC CITY, Dec. 12.—One of the boldest kidnappings in the history of Atlantic County was perpetrated in Gentrort just before 6 o'clock last night, when two negroes in soldiers' uniforms seized the five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Blake of No. 105 East Gowen Avenue, Germantown, while he was walking along Cambridge Avenue with his mother. Although the case was reported at once to the police of both Ventnor and this city, no trace of the kidnappers or the child had been found early to-day.

Mrs. Blake, with her son, had been visiting Benjamin Fox at No. 109 South Cambridge Avenue and had left to take a trolley car to Atlantic City.

The negroes sprang from the bushes which grow near the sidewalk. One seized Mrs. Blake by the throat and the other took the child. Mrs. Blake screamed and fainting, when she recovered consciousness the men had disappeared. Her husband who was going, she crawled to the Fox home and gave the alarm. Then she learned the highwaymen had also taken a purse she had concealed in a fold of her dress.

Donald Riddle, a son of former Mayor Riddle took Mrs. Blake to her home in his automobile after she had told Police Chief Sprague of Ventnor details of the attack. She is under the care of a physician. There are bruises on her throat where her assailant choked her.

BRITISH STEAMER RUNS ASHORE OFF ROCKAWAY INLET

Coast Guard Cutter Goes to Assistance of Inbound Grange Park.

ANOTHER IS SINKING.

Messina From St. John to Antwerp in Distress Off New Foundland Coast.

Capt. Byron L. Reed, in charge of the New York Division of the United States Coast Guard, received a radiogram from the Navy Department at 8:30 o'clock this morning, that the British tramp steamer Grange Park, on her first voyage to New York, had run aground off East Rockaway Inlet. The Coast Guard cutter Manhattan was immediately sent to the assistance of the grounded vessel.

Coast Guards off Lookout Beach heard distress signals this morning and with Coast Guards from Short Beach launched boats in the direction of the grounded ship on the outer bar of Jones Inlet, across from Freeport.

Shortly before 11 o'clock one of the rescue boats returned. The crew reported it was unable to locate the stranded vessel. The other boats had not returned at noon.

The Grange Park was built in 1913 at Greenock, Scotland, and was being brought across the Atlantic in ballast, consigned to Sanderson & Son, No. 26 Broadway. At that office it was said that the "R. O. S." gave the ship's position as "Off Jones Inlet" and that tugs had been sent to her aid. The ship is 400 feet long, 52 feet beam, 23 feet deep, and she is of 5,250 gross tons.

The British steamer Messina to-day sent out an S. O. S. call which was picked up here. The steamship Maple Leaf answered, saying she was making three knots an hour and would reach her in twenty hours. The Messina gave her position as latitude 42° 22' North and longitude 42° 30' West.

This position is approximately the miles off the Newfoundland coast.

The Messina, a 4,271-ton steamer, left St. John, N. B., on Dec. 6 for Antwerp. She is owned by the Tait Line, Ltd.

BOSTON, Dec. 12.—A radio message received here to-day said the British steamer Messina was in a sinking condition in the North Atlantic, and would require boats. The message said it would be impossible to reach her.

Completed Canard Line Carriers
Reaches Port Apparently Sinking.

HALIFAX, N. S., Dec. 12.—Wireless stations and rescue ships continued today the search of the North Atlantic for vessels disabled and adrift in the heavy sea. The United States Shipping Board steamer Davidson County, crippled by the loss of her propeller, awaited the arrival of the United States Coast Guard steamer Albatross.

The British steamer Shona, the Canadian steamer Proprietary, the German steamer Horner, now under British registry, and the steamer Ortopia were last reported virtually at the mercy of the seas and in need of immediate assistance.

The Canard Line Carriers, in collision with the steamer M. V. Island last Wednesday, arrived here early to-day with many Americans aboard. She appeared to be sinking.

The American schooner Renard Moulton and M. V. Nicholson are headed in Harbor Acm. New Foundland. The steamer E. D. Kingsley is ashore at the entrance to White Head harbor.

Nixon and Hardin Remove Last of Fuel-Saving Rules Except Limit

Being Restored.

All fuel restrictions in New York City were cancelled to-day. This action was taken as a result of discretionary powers given regional directors by the United States Railroad Administration and was announced by Public Service Commissioner Lewis Nixon at 11 o'clock this morning.

As a result all stores will remain open during the regular hours for the Christmas trade, the light will blaze again on Broadway and in other sections of the city and heat will be turned on in the subway and elevated trains once more. Suburban trains taken off as a result of the coal shortage will be restored as soon as the details can be worked out.

LATEST GERMAN NOTE IS PUZZLING TO PARIS

Newspaper Reports Are Conflicting,
but It Is Believed Protocol
Will Be Signed.

PARIS, Dec. 12.—Conflicting reports about the reply to Germany with reference to signing the peace protocol are published in Paris newspapers.

The Matin says they have definitely decided to sign, although they will endeavor to obtain further concessions up to the minute of signing.

The Echo de Paris says the note does not constitute an acceptance, although it is considered a concession. This paper asserts the Allies will have to send a new note to Germany, but belief is expressed that the Berlin Government will yield and that the protocol will be signed about Christmas.

NEW WITNESS FOR DEFENSE IN DANSEY BOY MYSTERY

Brother of Accused Woman Says
White Couldn't Have Harned
"Billy" Without His Knowledge.

HAMMONTON, N. J., Dec. 12.—William J. Palmer, brother of Mrs. Edith J. Jones, accused as an accessory after the fact in the "Dancey" murder case, will be an important witness for the defense in its expected attempt to establish an alibi for Mrs. Jones and her husband, who is alleged to have killed the child.

Palmer's home is in Camden, N. J. He sometimes is employed in the packing house of the White Rabbit Farm. He said today he was in and out of the packing house many times on Oct. 8, the day the Dansey boy disappeared, and saw Charles B. White at intervals of fifteen to twenty minutes all day.

Charles could not have done this without his knowing it, he said. "I would have known it, if my sister had been with me," he said, "and they say after he had been wounded."
